Table of contents

Foreword ................................................................. 3

Introduction ......................................................... 6

Part I: Preparing the ground

1 What is culture? .................................................. 11
   Defining and explaining culture and cultures

2 Culture and language ........................................... 19
   Culturally speaking

3 Intercultural theory ............................................. 27
   A map is not the territory

4 The CEFR and intercultural competence ..................... 42
   Intercultural communication in action

5 Politeness in intercultural encounters ...................... 52
   Much more than dos and don’ts

6 International English ........................................... 64
   Lingua franca of intercultural communication

7 Corporate cultures .............................................. 74
   Coming to terms with organizational change

Part II: Teaching intercultural competence

8 Practical issues .................................................. 86
   Teaching intercultural competence

9 Teaching intercultural theory ................................ 103
   A practical approach